Austrian Nobleman, Who Is Now an Who Had Charged Him With Assault and Abandonment.

NEW YORK, March 19 .- Count De l'estities turned the tables on his wife yesterday by serving papers on Miles W. Beemer, a reputed millionaire, for $50,000 damages for alienation of the countess affections. The marital troubles of the pair have made interesting reading at freuent intervals for a year or more. The Aldine Hotel, Philadelphia, was the scene of one exciting episode in which an alleged abduction was the chief feature.

York Man to Be Tried for Putting Cartridges in Foundry Flask.

YORK, Pa., March 19.—Charged with secreting Mauser cartridges in the sand of a flask in which a cast was about to be made at the foundry of the A. B. Farquhar Company, B. F. Butler, secretary of the local iron molders' union, was held for court. It was shown at this hearing that Butler had purchased Mauser cartridges and a dark lantern from a York dealer.

PURE FOOD BILL HEARINGS.

Berg is aangry because his name is not attached to a bill passed by this house that its about.

Assemblyman Burnet, when one of Senator Elsberg's bills was reached on the calendar, moved its recommittee on rules, and this was done. Mr. Burnett said:

"Mr. Elsberg calls a legislative committee down for not reporting out a bill introduced by him. I wonder if he ever refused to vote out a bill from the senate codes committee, of which he is a member. The rules committee is an honorable body of experienced and courteous legislators and not obstructionists. If Mr. Elsberg wants to hold up legislation all right, but he had better attend to his business in the Senate and leave us to attend to ours in the Assembly."
